Candidate Information Bulletin*

INTRODUCTION

The Georgia Board of Physical Therapy was created by the Georgia legislature to protect the public from incompetent professional practice. In order to achieve this goal, the Board established minimum standards and requirements, and a licensure examination was developed. The Jurisprudence Examination is an examination on the laws and the rules governing the practice of physical therapy in Georgia. That law is Section 43 Chapter 33, “The Georgia Physical Therapy Act.” The rules are Chapter 490, the “Rules of the Georgia State Board of Physical Therapy.”

This Board strives to assure that licensed physical therapists and physical therapist assistants practice physical therapy competently within the limits of the law. The purpose of the Jurisprudence Examination is to allow demonstration of a minimally acceptable level of knowledge regarding the law and rules governing physical therapy practice in Georgia by an individual seeking initial licensure in Georgia, or whose license has been sanctioned.

For a sanctioned license, successful completion of the Jurisprudence Examination may be only one requirement of a license sanction. All requirements of a sanction, including successful completion of the Jurisprudence Examination, must be satisfactorily met for the Georgia State Board of Physical Therapy to consider restoring a license to an unsanctioned status.

	Content-covered	Percent of Questions
1.	Laws 43-33-1 – 43-33-20 43-1-19 – 43-1-27	Approximately 40%
2.	Rules 490-1 – 490-9	Approximately 60%

*Sample Question

The following question is an example of questions on the exam.

A person who only performs designated and supervised physical therapy tasks not requiring formal training is a

- a. physical therapist assistant
- b. physical therapist technician
- c. physical therapy aide
- d. physical therapist

Answer: Both physical therapist and physical therapist assistants require formal training pursuant to Georgia law 43-33-12 and 43-33-13, therefore “a” and “d” are incorrect. Answer “b” is incorrect because a physical therapist technician is not recognized under Georgia law. The correct answer is “c” because under Georgia law O.C.G.A. Section 43-33-3(8) reads: “Physical therapy aide” means a person who only performs designated and supervised physical therapy tasks.” Georgia Rule 490-8-.01 reads in part: “A physical therapy aide, activities do not require technical training through a formal course of study.”
